CHINESE HUSBANDS

American Wife of Celestial Finds Him Ideal.

George Gould's Sister-in-Law Praises Spouse Who Cast Her Family and Friends—Says Men of Her Own Race Are Bored.

San Francisco, Cal.—"The world may give the laurel to the American husband, but I am glad I married a Chinaman. Of course, I can only speak for myself and though I would never take the responsibility of advising anyone to marry as I did, yet I have certainly found that the Chinese make ideal husbands.

"In missionary experience I found that there happiness is the rule, not the exception. Divorce or separation are very rare. My home life is at least the equal of any American home I have ever known."

Mrs. Wong Sue You Clemens is a cultured, well-educated white woman, the sister of Mrs. Howard Gould, who six years ago became the wife of a Chinese merchant. Her home today is a little shop in the heart of San Francisco's Chinatown.

"I find the American men great bores. They have no conversational resources outside of their individual interests. Their women are kept at their wits' end amusing and entertaining them.

"But the Chinese are very versatile and the most striking people in the world. To them everything has a meaning. For instance, 'this is a real brotherhood table.' There are no edges to friendship, so the Chinese never eat at square tables. It seems a small thing, but there is a certain fineness and sentiment among the better class of Chinese which characterizes everything they do. Indeed, I have only one regret, that I did not have the courage to take this step in my early youth."

Mrs. Wong has adopted the Chinese dress, which she likes as she likes everything Chinese.

"To me there is nothing unusual in what I did," she continued. "The Chinese are the kindest people in the world and their regard for women is most reverent. Their ideal never permits a man to disrespect a woman who respects herself. I think this is more than we can say of our countrymen."

"The Chinese woman is the mistress of her home and she is as much a coquette, as much a side-stepper of whatever does not suit her, as her American sisters. What is even more, the husband can not endure to see her do physical labor."

Mr. Wong is a suave, good-humored, easy-mannered oriental.

"I have not seen my mother for six years. My family bitterly opposed my marriage and I learn of them only through others. I did not try to keep any of my friends. I knew I was ostracized when I married my husband. But I do not think my loss is to be compared with my gain. This little store, hung with the treasures we dug from the ruins, bounds my world. But it is very rich, for it contains a friend. When husband and wife are perfect comrades they do not need others. Only the unhappy are dissatisfied; we are supremely happy. "If I had married 20 years ago instead of six we would have nothing left to wish for."

DOG SACRIFICES ITS LIFE

Little Canine Makes Vain Attempt to Save Owner in Burning House.

London.—A touching story of a Pomeranian dog's vain attempt to save the life of its owner, who was fatally burned in a fire at Grosvenor-gardens recently, is being told here.

The victim of the fire was Mrs. Southgate, young wife of a chauffeur in the service of Count Apponyi. She was seen by a policeman standing at a window with her clothes in flames.

While the officer and a chauffeur were breaking down the front door the little dog was seen jumping up at the window, barking frantically. He then rushed back to his mistress and apparently attempted to put out her burning clothing with his paws.

When an entrance was effected the woman was found to be in a dying condition and the little dog was dead.

BOY HELD AS BLACKMAILER

Telegraph Runner, Aged Fifteen, Confesses to Attempted Extortion in London.

Paris.—A telegraph boy, aged fifteen, was arrested on a charge of attempted blackmail. He and his comrades at a branch postoffice had been in the habit of opening telegrams and reading them. In this way the boy learned of an intrigue that was being carried on by a married woman. He wrote demanding $20 as the price of his silence, but his letter fell into the hands of the woman's uncle, who gave him in charge. The lad confessed, but the woman declined to prosecute.

Four Years Without Water.
Hemet, Cal.—Charles R. Reichehoff of this place has touched neither water or any other kind of liquid than the juice of fruits for four years. Reichehoff, who is the son of a millionaire living at Orange City, Ia., came here some years ago determined to live on nothing but fruit and nuts. He says he is in perfect health.
